What is a Shelter/Diagnostic Group Home?

Miller Home is a community-based program for males ages 12 through 18 where youth can receive various levels of diagnostic services and/or shelter care, along with several short term treatment modalities and education.

Shelter Care

Provides a home for male youth, ages 12 to 18, who are in need of emergency placement in a community-based setting. This short-term program meets all of the youth's basic needs by establishing a safe, nurturing environment.

Diagnostic

An evaluative model which can be 14, 28, or 45 days in length, is designed for youth within residential facilities. The Diagnostic Services may include:

- Educational Assessment
- Family Interview and Evaluation
- Substance Abuse Assessment
- Sexuality Assessment
- Medical Evaluations
- Wechsler Intelligence Testing
- Psychiatric Evaluations
- Child and Adolescent Needs and Strengths Assessment (CANS)

Program Specifics

Treatment modalities are intended for short term placements and vary based upon length of stay. These modalities may include Sanctuary model concepts, psychiatric services, child management techniques, Motivational Interviewing, a high impact version of Choice Theory Group, individual counseling sessions, and family work to increase engagement.

Admission/ Intake Requirements

Individual programs have specific admission requirements. Contact the Director of Admissions for detailed information.

Education

- Education is provided through Adelphoi Education. Youth attend the Alternative Education Program in Kittanning
- An academic plan is developed to suit each student's ability and educational goals
