For Immediate Release May 13, 2026

For more information, contact:
Karyn Pratt
724-804-7106
karyn.pratt@adelphoi.org

Adelphoi Welcomes Four New Members to Its Boards of Directors

Latrobe, PA — Adelphoi is pleased to announce the appointment of four new members to its boards of directors, strengthening leadership across Adelphoi Village, Adelphoi Education, and Adelphoi USA. Russ Carlino, Dr. Tracy McNelly, Alice Brasili, and Courtney Baum each bring extensive experience and a shared commitment to improving outcomes for youth and families.

Russ Carlino has joined the Adelphoi Village Board. A nationally respected leader in juvenile justice, Carlino served more than 30 years with the Allegheny County Juvenile Probation Department, including over a decade as Chief Juvenile Probation Officer. In that role, he led the implementation of evidence-based practices and system-wide initiatives focused on community safety, accountability, and youth development. His leadership helped strengthen outcomes and advance innovative approaches across one of Pennsylvania's largest juvenile justice systems.

Dr. Tracy McNelly has been appointed to the Adelphoi Education and Ketterer Charter School Boards. She currently serves as Associate Professor and Chair of the Education Department at Saint Vincent College. Dr. McNelly brings a distinguished career in both higher education and public school leadership, including service as Assistant Superintendent of Secondary Education. Her work focuses on literacy, instructional practices, and the integration of technology in education, and she has published and presented extensively in these areas.

Alice Brasili also joins the Adelphoi Education and Ketterer Charter School Boards. She currently serves as Executive Process Manager at Adelphoi and is a graduate of Westmoreland County Community College. With more than 18 years of service to Adelphoi, she brings deep institutional knowledge and a strong understanding of the organization's mission, strategic priorities, and commitment to the children, families, and communities it serves.

Courtney Baum joins the Adelphoi USA Board. With more than 25 years of experience in career development, talent engagement, and organizational leadership, Baum currently serves as Director of Talent at Sisterson & Co. She has a strong background in building recruitment strategies, strengthening employee engagement, and fostering partnerships between organizations and educational institutions. Her career has been marked by a commitment to professional development and creating pathways for long-term success.

"These individuals bring a depth of experience and perspective that will strengthen our organization at every level," said Nancy Kukovich, CEO. "Their leadership and commitment to service align closely with Adelphoi's mission, and we are proud to welcome them to our boards."

Adelphoi provides a continuum of services to support children, youth, and families, helping them build stronger futures through education, treatment, and community-based programs.

For more information, visit www.adelphoi.org.