For more information:
Matthew Achtziger
724-804-7110
matthew.achtziger@adelphoi.org

For immediate release:
October 12, 2023

Adelphoi CEO Nancy Kukovich Honored as Distinguished Daughter of Pennsylvania

Harrisburg, PA – Adelphoi CEO Nancy Kukovich was recently honored as a Distinguished Daughter of Pennsylvania at the organization's annual luncheon at the Governor's Residence in Harrisburg. Bibiana Boerio, of Latrobe, the 25th President of the Distinguished Daughters of Pennsylvania, announced the new Inductees for the Distinguished Daughters Class of 2023. Governor Josh Shapiro recognized the ten women at this year's event on October 11, 2023.

The Mission of Distinguished Daughters of Pennsylvania is to honor extraordinary women for their outstanding service and contributions to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Since 1949, almost 550 talented, dedicated, and influential women from every part of the state have been honored for the significant, positive impact their work and service have had in improving the quality of life for all Pennsylvanians and around the world.

"For 75 years, the Distinguished Daughters have recognized the achievements of Pennsylvania women – leaders who make a difference in our communities every day," said Governor Josh Shapiro. "This new class of inductees builds upon that long tradition, and Lori and I are pleased to welcome an incredible group of women – leaders in public service, health care, business, and education – into the ranks of Pennsylvania's Distinguished Daughters. Your hard work showcases what we can accomplish for the good people of Pennsylvania when we all come together."

As CEO of Adelphoi, Kukovich oversees a leading programming provider for youth and families in Pennsylvania that serves 2,500 youth and families annually. She previously served as CEO of the United Way of Westmoreland County. Before moving to Westmoreland County, Nancy worked as United Way of Pennsylvania's CEO and Deputy Director of the County Commissioner's Association of Pennsylvania, representing county government human services before the State's Administration and General Assembly. She also served three years in the Secretary's Office of the PA Department of Public Welfare and was Director of the human services office for Union and Snyder Counties. Nancy attended Gustavus Adolphus College, Penn State University, and the University of Pennsylvania, Wharton School of Business.

Headquartered in Latrobe, Adelphoi offers outcome-based solutions for abused, neglected, delinquent and other at-risk children and their families through a continuum of treatment and education services that provide a foundation of hope for the future. Since its founding in 1971, Adelphoi has served over 60,000 at-risk youth and families.

Nancy Kukovich with her husband Allen at the awards luncheon.