Intensive Supervision - Mental Health Focus

Adelphoi's Intensive Supervision with Mental Health Focus group home offers 24/7 care for dependent or delinquent male and female youth with mental health diagnoses. The program focuses on education, mental health support, and accountability, helping clients develop coping and life skills. Enhanced staffing ensures regular individual therapy, family education, and counseling to support a successful transition back home

Program Specifics

The Intensive Supervision - Mental Health Focus treatment program includes Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder counseling, individual and group Aggression Replacement Training, and a trauma-informed care model that fosters therapeutic communities, ensuring safety for both youth and staff. The program emphasizes family involvement with weekly visits, therapist-facilitated family counseling, and financial assistance for transportation. Regular individual therapy is provided by Master's level therapists. Additionally, the program incorporates Balanced and Restorative Justice (BARJ) through community service projects, restitution payments, and victim awareness counseling. Discharge planning focuses on continued mental health treatment, educational needs, and family support.

Education

Educational programming for youth in each group home will be determined pursuant to Section 1306 of the Public School Code (24 P.S. §13-1306) which states that ... children who are residents of such homes, but not legal residents in such district (shall be permitted) to attend the public schools in said district.

An educational team will include membership from the host school district, Ketterer Charter School or Adelphoi Education, parents or guardians, and teachers from the host school district and the charter school.

An academic plan is tailored to each student's abilities and educational goals.
