Marker Home

Sex Offender Residential Treatment Program for Girls

Marker Home is an intensive supervision, mental health-focused program for girls, ages 12–18, who have engaged in sexual offending behaviors. As the only program of its kind in Pennsylvania, Marker Home provides enhanced counseling and treatment for dependent or delinquent youth. The program emphasizes education and support around trauma and mental health while helping youth take responsibility for their actions, build coping strategies, and develop essential life skills. With 24/7 care, regular individual therapy, therapeutic family sessions, and ongoing family education, Marker Home strengthens each youth's path toward healing and successful reintegration into the home setting.
